

One can consider H H Mahanidhi Swami as a resident of Radha Kunda. He stays there, writes books from there, gives lectures there and continues his deep sadhana there. His books are a source of inspiration to senior as well as junior devotees on the path of devotional service. His detail study of Gaudiya vaishnava siddhanta has been very inspiring. His emphasis has been on sadhana. He is an ocean of bliss of very kind to every devotee.

HH Mahanidhi Swami is a disciple of Srila Prabhupada and currently resides at Sri Radha Kunda. He has lived in Vrindavan for many years now and for some time was the caretaker of Prabhupada's rooms at the Radha-Damodara temple. He is the author of many excellent books including the peachy publication 'Art of Chanting Hare Krsna.' His deep sadhana, wonderfilled lectures and well presented books are an inspiration to senior as well as junior devotees and his detailed study of Gaudiya Vaishnava-siddhanta has been of meritorious benefit. He leads scintillating parikrama's of Vrindavan, brilliantly elucidating Radha-Govinda's lila-stalis; he is uniquely qualified to write and speak about the science of Bhakti and he is a great ocean (Mahanidhi) of transcendental treasures.
